

Power Rangers Dino Fury Morphs Into Action at Netflix

21 Oct, 2021

Season 2 of Power Rangers Dino Fury to debut exclusively on Netflix in the U.S. starting Spring 2022

Netflix, Entertainment One (eOne) and Hasbro, Inc. announced today that the second season of the Power Rangers Dino Fury series will premiere on Netflix starting Spring 2022. The new season will feature new characters, new weapons, new Zords (with unique Megazord combinations!), and new vehicles including the Dino Fury Cycle, a T-rex inspired motorcycle with blasters – all resulting in even more action-packed adventures. Plus, everyone's favorite Dino Fury Power Rangers from season 1, Zayto (Red Ranger), Ollie (Blue Ranger), Izzy (Green Ranger), Javi (Black Ranger), Amelia (Pink Ranger), and the newest recruit, Aiyon (Gold Ranger), are set to make a morphinominimal return.

Season 1 introduced us to a brand-new team of Power Rangers, fueled by the prehistoric power of the dinosaurs and recruited to deal with the threat of an army of powerful alien beings. The series will pick up right where season 1 left off, with the fate of Void Knight and Santaura revealed. Evil forces and influential villains will continue to disrupt the Dino Fury Rangers. Season 2 will also see Zayto and Aiyon discovering more about Raikou, their home planet, the development of new and existing relationships, and the introduction of never-before-seen characters. Fans can also look forward to the reveals of exciting, new power-ups, including new Dino Boost Keys!

Produced by eOne and Hasbro, the Power Rangers series has been a favorite among superhero fans since 1993, with the launch of Mighty Morphin Power Rangers. Season 2 of Power Rangers Dino Fury marks the 29th season of Power Rangers.

The continued partnership with Netflix ensures fans have the latest Power Rangers series at their fingertips.
