The 28th season of Power Rangers made a morphinomial return with "Power Rangers Dino Fury," and the series is set to premiere its fifth episode featuring guest star Sarah Dalton, a Special Olympics New Zealand Equestrian athlete, who plays Lily on the show. The episode 'Winning Attitude' airs on Saturday, March 27 at 8:00 a.m. (ET/PT) on Nickelodeon.

In the episode, Dino Fury Green Ranger Izzy (Tessa Rao) is determined to win a big race with the help of her Special Olympics athlete cousin, Lily (Sarah Dalton). After Lily misses a training session and Izzy rejects more help, her sportsmanship is put to the test. The episode teaches viewers that winning isn't everything and sometimes helping people is more important.

"When casting Lily, we wanted to make sure this person A) was a Special Olympics athlete and B) had a positive spirit and attitude complementing the qualities of our main cast. Sarah certainly met those requirements, and she has been fantastic to work with," said Executive Producer Simon Bennett. "Featuring diverse characters has always been a vital part of the Power Rangers story. We're thrilled to have Sarah join the Power Rangers family."

Power Rangers is an iconic brand built on a heritage of great storytelling and merchandising. Launched in 1993 with the debut of "Mighty Morphin Power Rangers," the franchise today includes movies, TV series, toys and role-play items inspired by Power Rangers.
