Partnership helps replenish essential natural resources as Hasbro works to combat climate change and reduce greenhouse gas emissions

PAWTUCKET, R.I. — September 22, 2022 -- Hasbro, Inc. (NASDAQ: HAS), a global play and entertainment company, today announced the company has completed planting 100,000 trees as part of a partnership with One Tree Planted, a non-profit organization focused on global reforestation. The trees were planted in four key regions across the globe including Brazil, the United States, India and Ireland, together helping global reforestation efforts.

Hasbro has a proven history of environmental stewardship, and the company and its employees care deeply about ensuring the health of our planet and communities. "At Hasbro, we are focused on using our business as a force for good and having a positive impact on the planet," said Kathrin Belliveau, Chief Purpose Officer, Hasbro. "One Tree Planted is an impactful organization that plants trees to restore nature and biodiversity. We're thrilled to have teamed up with them and completed planting 100,000 trees, replenishing vital natural resources used in many of our products and packaging. We view this partnership as a purposeful component of our overall strategy to tackle climate change."

"We are excited to be working with Hasbro to plant trees in four key regions across the globe," said Ashley Lamontagne, Forest Campaign Manager at One Tree Planted "We admire Hasbro's commitment to creating a healthier, greener planet for all, and look forward to continuing to do great work together."

One Tree Planted is also engaging with Hasbro employees through the company's Team Hasbro employee volunteer program, planting trees in Rhode Island where Hasbro's global headquarters is located. Team Hasbro, the company's best-in-class employee volunteer program, provides year-round, company-sponsored opportunities for employees to give back. Hasbro's volunteerism rate worldwide is 92%.
